THE MYRTLE BEACH APARTMENT ASSOCIATION CODE OF ETHICS

PREAMBLE

Membership in the association shall be limited to those persons and firms who shall subscribe to and be bound by the following Code of Ethics.

CODE OF ETHICS

Recognizing the vastly increasing role of the apartment industry in providing quality housing, the members of the Myrtle Beach Apartment Association have united for the purpose of improving the services and conditions of the apartment industry.

The members of this Association proudly and publicly assume the responsibility of providing adequate and desirable accommodations and facilities for the enjoyment of apartment residents and recognize our duty to the public, owners, managers, and shall ever be mindful of our obligations to all regulations governing the free enterprise system.

Article 1

We adhere to and practice the Golden Rule in all of our endeavors and conduct ourselves in a forthright and ethical manner to better the communities of which we are part.

Article 2

We seek to provide the apartment residing public, our customers, with the high standards of quality and service and to seek to continually provide better value.

Article 3

We seek, consistent with the high standards of honesty and integrity, to promote the progress and dignity of the apartment industry and to encourage an even greater share of the public to enjoy the many benefits of apartment living.

Article 4

We adhere to the profit principle and believe that the investment, risk, labor and effort required to present an appropriate and high quality product to our residents deserves a fair return.

Article 5

We respect the rights of competitors and colleagues to determine the value of their products and services.

Article 6

We adhere to the principles of cooperation and friendship among members of this association so as to further the interests of the members and the community we serve.

Article 7

We believe in the sanctity of contracts and their enforcement through appropriate procedures.

Article 8

We seek every means to improve our knowledge of our industry and to continually strive to promote the education of the membership and to be cognizant of the changes constantly taking place in the housing industry, with the view toward incorporating new ideas into improved management.

Article 9

We will refrain from attempting to obtain apartment residents by means of deceptive of fraudulent statements, misrepresentations or the use of implications, unwarranted by fact or reasonable probability, ever mindful of the purpose of the Myrtle Beach Apartment Association and in compliance with the Constitution and bylaws.

Article 10

We will not deny services or employment to any persons for reasons of race creed, sex, or country of national origin.

Article 11

We place honesty and integrity and industriousness above all else and establish high ethical standards of conduct in doing business with suppliers, agencies, residents, owners, and managers and the community we serve.

Article 12

We believe that it is the duty of each of us to conduct ourselves in accordance with the principles of this Code of Ethics and to condemn those who violate these principles by use of the proper disciplinary procedures established by the Association.
